
Prayer Request:

Submitted by: Kristy Stuart - 2010-02-21 - 01:36:26

First of all, I am thankful for Grace Mark's willingness to pray. I have not been to your church, but know a couple of people that attend there.

My husband, Scott, and I are actively seeking God's will and Satan is doing everything possible to discourage us. Our son, Bryan, has started acting out and is having trouble at school. He has developed a temper and gets angry easily. This started when we decided to answer God's call...Please cover him in prayer as we work toward a solution that honors God.

Scott and I are also struggling financially. I gave up my teaching job last spring to become a wife and mom first. I have started a business and my work has started to pick up. Please pray that we will learn to follow a budget and that God will continue to meet our needs...

Also, I will be teaching a Ladies Bible Study on March 13th in Joshua...my topic is overcoming the labels that the world puts on you (basically, how to overcome depression and replace it with joy). Please pray for the ladies that will be there and for God to use me to bring glory and honor to Him.

Thanks so much for being part of God's plan in our lives. I pray that you are blessed beyond measure and that you are walking in the true light of Jesus! Be blessed!
